Marketing Research, 11th Edition features new trends, features and cases throughought, with updated chapters featuring new examples of companies and research firms, from Hycaffe, the famous Italian coffee brand. Twitter, ESPN, Ford and General Motors. Coauthor Roger Gates, President of DSS Page 39/57

Research, infuses the text with a practitioner perspective, helping students learn how to use marketing research through a practical presentation of theory and practice.

Market information is critical for any organisation to meet Page 40/57 their strategic goals, and this textbook equips students with the necessary skills to undertake market research themselves or manage and oversee research projects undertaken by others. Keeping digital data and internet research at its heart, this textbook details the main stages of the research process with Page 41/57 both quantitative and qualitative methods and includes a plethora of international case studies and examples. This accessible textbook is the ideal companion for students of marketing research at diploma, undergraduate, postgraduate and MBA levels. Clow and Karen E. James offers a hands-on,

applied approach to

developing the fundamental data analysis skills necessary for making better management decisions using marketing research results. Each chapter opens by describing an actual research study related to the chapter content, with rich examples of contemporary research practices skillfully drawn Page 44/57 from interviews with marketing research professionals and published practitioner studies. Clow and James explore the latest research techniques, including social media and other online methodologies, and they examine current statistical methods of analyzing data. With emphasis on how to interpret marketing Page 45/57 research results and how to use those findings to make effective management decisions, the authors offer a unique learning-by-doing approach to understanding data analysis, interpreting data, and applying results to decision-making.

Uniting industry experience with Page 46/57 academic expertise, the authors combine marketing communications and advertising with the branding perspective, providing students with a practical planning system and a seven-step approach to creating a comprehensive marketing plan. The new SAGE Marketing Communications Page 47/57

textbook is a contemporary evolution of the well-known Rossiter and Percy Advertising and Promotion Management textbook, which at its peak was adopted by six of the top 10 U.S. business schools — Stanford, Wharton, Columbia, Berkeley, UCLA, and Northwestern — as well Page 48/57 as by the London Business School, Oxford's Said Business School, and by most of the top business schools in Europe such as Erasmus University Rotterdam, INSEAD, and the Stockholm School of Economics. Key features include: An author analytical approach with checklist frameworks in chapters, Page 49/57 providing students with a systematic guide to doing marketing communications. A managerial perspective, helping students to become a marketing manager and study as though they are in the role. Coverage of key new marketing communications topics such as branding and social media. In each of Page 50/57

the end-of-chapter questions there are minicases that involve real brands, and the numerous examples throughout the text refer to globally known brands such as Gillette. Mercedes, Revion, and Toyota. The book is supported by online instructor resources. including PowerPoint slides and teaching Page 51/57 outlines for each chapter, multiple choice exam questions and answers, team project templates, true and false quizzes and answers, and an instructor manual. Suitable for Marketing Communications and Advertising & Promotion modules at UG and PG levels.

Covers every key Page 52/57

functional and theoretical area of sport marketing, including marketing research, information systems, consumer behavior, logistics, retail management, sales management, ecommerce, promotions, advertising, sponsorship, and international business.
