Exploring the distinctive nature and role of local pilgrimage traditions among Muslims and Catholics, Muslim and Catholic Pilgrimage Practices draws particularly on south central Java, Indonesia. In this area, the hybrid local Muslim pilgrimage culture is shaped by traditional Islam, the Javano-Islamic sultanates, and the Javanese culture with its strong Hindu-Buddhist heritage. This region is also home to a vibrant Catholic community whose identity formation has occurred in a way that involves complex engagements with Islam as well as Javanese culture. In this respect, local pilgrimage tradition presents itself as a rich milieu in which these complex engagements have been taking place between Islam, Catholicism, and Javanese culture. Employing a comparative theological and phenomenological analysis, this book reveals the deeper religio-cultural and theological import of pilgrimage practice in the identity formation and interaction among Muslims and Catholics in south central Java. In a wider context, it also sheds light on the larger dynamics of the complex encounter between Islam, Christianity and local cultures.

The dissertation aims at reducing this gap in the literature on Islamic cultures, and provides its readers with ways of approaching and understanding Ramadan - and various different Islamic phenomena - in Indonesia and in other parts of the Muslim world. It is argued that we preferably may approach Islam from three different angles, that is, to discuss it from the normative, the written, and the lived perspectives respectively. In this study, thorough attention is thus directed not only to the classical and normative Islamic texts and the lived reality in Java, but also to the popular and contemporary Indonesian literature on Ramadan.

Syahadat merupakan rukun islam yang pertama dan menjadi hal yang paling penting bagi muslim. Jika kita mengaku muslim yang baik tentu kita harus memahami makna dari syahadat dengan baik dan benar. Karena Tauhid yang murni membuat orang bisa masuk surga tanpa hisab. Terkadang, tanpa disadari banyak orang yang melakukan hal-hal yang bisa merusak aqidah. Padahal syahadat merupakan pembeda bagi orang Islam dan kafir. Hal-hal yang bisa merusak aqidah dan tauhid banyak sekali macamnya. Diantaranya adalah mengucapkan sumpah palsu (sumpah dengan nama Allah tapi bohong), syirik, suka mencela takdir Allah, bersumpah dengan nama selain Allah, ataupun dengan ucapan-ucapan yang menjurus pada syirik. Selain itu berhukum dengan selain hukum Allah juga termasuk hal yang bisa merusak aqidah. Dalam buku ini, kami Tim PusatIlmu.com menyajikan secara gamblang tentang panduan ringkas syahadat yang meliputi pentingnya syahadat, memahami makna syahadat secara benar serta menjelaskan tentang hal-hal yang dapat merusak aqidah. Semoga bermanfaat dan dapat menjadi pengingat kita untuk terus berhati-hati dalam menjaga aqidah. Selamat membaca !

Criticism on deviation of Islamic ritual ceremonies in Indonesia.

Pilgrimage to Wali Sanga in Java.

Religious tourism in Java and Bali.

Shared ritual practices, multi-faith celebrations, and interreligious prayers are becoming increasingly common in the USA and Europe as more people experience religious diversity first hand. While ritual participation can be seen as a powerful expression of interreligious solidarity, it also carries with it challenges of a particularly sensitive nature. Though celebrating and worshiping together can enhance interreligious relations, cross-riting may also lead some believers to question whether it is appropriate to engage in the rituals of another faith community. Some believers may consider cross-ritual participation as inappropriate transgressive behaviour. Bringing together leading international contributors and voices from a number of religious traditions, Ritual Participation and Interreligious Dialogue delves into the complexities and intricacies of the phenomenon. They ask: what are the promises and perils of celebrating and praying together? What are the limits of ritual participation? How can we make sense of feelings of discomfort when entering the sacred space of another faith community? The first book to focus on the lived dimensions of interreligious dialogue through ritual participation rather than textual or doctrinal issues, this innovative volume opens an entirely new perspective.

Between Harmony and Discrimination articulates how religious practices have become the primary identity markers in Bali and Lombok. This movement has caused the historic interreligious relationships between majority and minority populations, primarily Hindus and Muslims, to be renegotiated and reconfigured.
